These General Rules take precedence over all General Regulations and Supplementary Regulations.

The General Regulations apply to all sections of the Show.

The Supplementary Regulations apply only to the section of the Show to which they specifically relate.

Should there be an inconsistency between the General Regulations and Supplementary Regulations, the Supplementary Regulations prevail for the relevant section only.

Do so at their own risk.

Shall comply with all relevant Federal, State & Local Laws, Regulations and Orders; and the Constitution, General Rules and Regulations,

The Show Council reserves the right at any time to postpone an exhibition or any event thereof in consequence of the inclemency of the weather or for any other sufficient cause to a date or dates deemed suitable by the Show Council and no entrance fees shall be returnable in the event of such postponement. The reasonableness of the cause or causes of postponement shall be decided by the Show Council and its judgment shall be conclusive and not open to question by an exhibitor or other person affected by the postponement.

6. The Show Council may abandon an exhibition or any event thereof through wet weather or, for any other reason which may make such a course advisable in its opinion. Should an exhibition or any event be abandoned or cancelled, exhibitors may be entitled to a return of the entrance fee paid in such event or events as may be cancelled, but no cause or action, liability or obligation shall be maintainable or be incurred by the Show Council or by the Association by reason of such abandonment or cancellation.

At the third agricultural show in the Bathurst district held at O'Connell Plains in 1861 the first protest against a judge's decision was made.

"A ploughman called Joseph Goodacre (ideal name!) wrote to the "Free Press" complaining that the judges of the ploughing section had erred badly, and claiming to be supported in this view by several people, including some committeemen. Oddly enough, Goodacre's protest was directed not against the awarding of the first prize, which he did not dispute, but at the awarding of the second prize." No action was taken.
